

1 additional subject for research or more or less in con-
2 junction with this question, by enlarging it, what has 3 been done by way of establishing a department of state
4 and local affairs and, in conjunction with that, what if 5 any provision has been made in any constitution of any 6 state for the creation of a department of state and local 7 governmental affairs.

8 Now, Mrs. Freedlander has brought to my atten-
9 tion the efforts being made in that direction in Pennsyl-
10 vania and apparently, right now, there is a bill which is 11 before the Governor for signature setting up a department
12 of community affairs, or some such name, and I asked her 13 to send a copy of that bill and it did reach me by the 14 last mail before I left the office, and it is certainly 15 one where I think not only what is being done in Pennsyl-
16 vania, but what is being done or has been done in any other 17 state would certainly be a matter for us to determine.

18 By an article which appears to be part of a 19 Senate Bill No. 1144, Session 1965, the bill before the 20 Governor is one which bears the caption, Powers and Duties
21 of the Department of Community Affairs, Its Departmental
