

1 care to be heard?

2 MRS. MACIE YOLKER: No. I'm just here for
3 the Women's Democratic League.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: May we have your name, please?

5 MRS. YOLKER: Mrs. Macie Yolker, 1810 Bonnie
6 View Lane, Elkridge, Maryland.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: All right, Mr. Burgess?

8 MR. LIONEL BURGESS: Mr. Chairman, ladies and 9 gentlemen, I did not get, and I'm sure it was sent to 10 me, this general outline, but I proceeded on the basis
11 that we are going to talk about equal representation
12 this morning. Anyway, I found out my first step in this 13 also was the preparation for what is in this document.
14 It has to do with Articles 1, 4, 6 and 7, and while I
15 have not had the opportunity to read these quite as 16 carefully as I would like to, I have read them many
17 times, as all of us have and, in years gone by, we paid
18 more attention to them because we had to.

19 It certainly sets the stage of the relation-
20 ship between suffrage and, of course, the ruling body,
21 I guess you might say the plenary powers of the
