

1 seizure of power in 1966. As a matter of fact, when you
2 think about tyranny, really, when we think about that, we
3 had 3,000,000 people in the United States at that time,
4 the same number of people we have in Maryland today, when
5 Patrick Henry made his speech in Virginia, and now we
6 have almost 190,000,000 people; and they talked about
7 tyranny then as a small thing. We just had a couple of 8 episodes of that and fought a war about it.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you very much. Dr.
10 Zimmerman?

11 DR. DAVID W. ZIMMERMAN: I don't have a pre-
12 pared statement. I came primarily as an observer. I do
13 want to reiterate what I said when I was before the 14 Commission.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: State your name and occupation.

16 DR. ZIMMERMAN: David Zimmerman, Deputy State
17 Superintendent of Schools. I think there ought to be a
18 definite application of equal opportunity for all. I
19 think I said this before and I think this is important.

20 MR. GENTRY: Do you think that is enforceable?

21 DR. ZIMMERMAN: I'm talking about the
