

1 might be summarized by saying that the University doesn't 2 attempt to do the job, but it attempts to work with the 3 unit of local government on how the job might be done;
4 in other words, to set up the arrangements for it, to make 5 the basic plans for it and carry it out.

6 That involves a good bit of specific coopera-
7 tion with the local units of government.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, of course, I think what we 9 are talking about would have a little more positive
10 function than that, and what has been done in other 11 states. Now, we have touched upon Pennsylvania, New York, 12 Massachusetts. What has been done in other states would 13 certainly be quite important.

14 DR. BURDETT: Now you are getting to quite a 15 fundamental matter. I gather that the tradition in 16 Maryland generally is to be of assistance and to be of 17 good fellowship with local governments, but not to con-
18 trol them in any matters of policy within the law. In 19 Pennsylvania, I gather the situation is quite different.
