

1 taking you in any order. We would like for you to speak
2 up spontaneously, as the spirit moves you. Senator
3 Curran?

4 SENATOR CURRAN: Doctor, thank you. I would 5 have to, perhaps not for as good reasons, but at this 6 point, at least, disagree with Senator James and Meyer.
7 I am a product of only one system, having had eight
8 years in Annapolis and having only lived by the bicameral
9 system.

10 I am not so sure that the unicameral -- perhaps 11 it has some advantages, but this one man-one vote decision 12 is very recent and we can't expect many of the states to 13 adopt this new attitude, but we do have the reality that 14 only one out of 50 has a unicameral system. In years to 15 come, maybe more and more will adopt Kansas' --

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Nebraska.

17 SENATOR CURRAN: Nebraska's position, but 18 having been the product of the one and having seen it
19 work, I think reasonably well, I have to stick by it.

20 I believe the government is becoming more
21 complex and not more simple and I think, with the
