

1 DELEGATE MANDEL: I did in the House. If the 2 Senate had passed it at that time, we probably would have 3 had it.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: One of the concerns our
5 Committee has had, and would you care to comment on this,
6 is if each county were to have at least one delegate 7 under the one man-one vote concept, you would have to 8 have a house that would be somewhere around 200, if it 9 were proportionate, let us say, in the year 1970. Would 10 you want to comment on that question which has concerned
11 us from time to time?

12 DELEGATE MANDEL: Well, I think that this 13 does create quite a problem, but I think that now we have 14 moved into senatorial districts which had never happened
15 before and I think we may be moving in the direction of 16 legislative districts, as well.

17 MR. ENEY: If I can break in and ask you for 18 a comment on two aspects of that, that are not clear from 19 what you say. Would your answer, as to the number, the 20 ideal number, be different for unicameral versus bi-21 cameral or are you speaking only in terms of the
