

1 in a lot of respects. You can introduce all types of 2 bills in either house and, if you're going to maintain 3 two houses and try to preserve some form of checks and 4 balances, maybe it should be on some basis as in Congress,
5 where only appropriations may be introduced in the House
6 of Representatives, not in the Senate. I'm just groping
7 to find some reason to preserve two houses and I haven't 8 been able to find it yet, very frankly.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: How large would you make the 10 one, if we had but one house?

11 SENATOR HUGHES: Well, obviously, I think it
12 would have to be at least as large as 102, which is 13 apparently as close as you can come mathematically under 14 the present population, and I suppose that would have to 15 grow as the population grew.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Any questions by the Commission?
17 Mr. Clagett?

18 MR. CLAGETT: I would rather just think out
19 loud rather than necessarily at this point be committed
20 to a position, because occupying the status of another
21 committee rather than the Legislative Committee, there
