

1 as the mail arrives, and those we will begin circulating.

2 Now, whether or not you will have sufficient
3 material to base your decisions on by any particular day
4 is a little difficult to say at the moment.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: I would like an expression of 6 the members of the Committee. My thought was that the 7 way in which we would get the benefit of the research on 8 these questions would be that the individuals to whom 9 they are assigned or at least one individual be invited 10 to be present to give us a general appraisal of the 11 accomplishment and the results. So that we could set up 12 as part of the agenda of our meetings the appearance of 13 someone to give us the results or at least some evaluation
14 of it, rather than having to read all that material or 15 have the responsibility of reading all that material which 16 we may not be able to get read.

17 So, as soon as any one question has been 18 researched and the result is available, I would like to 19 have someone who has been directly associated with it 20 appear before the Committee and be advised to give us in 21 fifteen minutes or so a synopsis of the results. I think
