

1 MR. ENEY: That would mean you would have an
2 unlimited session?

3 SENATOR HUGHES: Suppose you stayed in session
4 beyond the length of time in the statute?

5 DELEGATE MANDEL: You change the statute.

6 DELEGATE KIRCHER: You change the statute,
7 instead of 70 days.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Some of the members, we haven't 9 taken any position, but some of the members of the 10 Committee were concerned about the fact that this might 11 actually affect the type of person who would run for 12 office, if there were not a stated amount of days in-13 volved. He might feel, well, if it's continuous, I
14 won't run because I don't want to get involved --

15 DELEGATE KIRCHER: If we provided in the 16 Constitution that the session of the legislature would 17 be of a limited nature, I don't know exactly the wording,
18 but it would have limitations as to time set by statute.
19 The candidate would still know that the annotated
20 article, such-and-such, the present session, it states
21 70 days. Now, it could change in his four years in
