

1 person from that district elected to represent the 2 people of that district, and it certainly is to me, if 3 you're going to not require him to be a resident of that 4 district, then you might as well have countywide repre-
5 sentation. You might as well let him represent the 6 county at large. You don't need subdistricting. You
7 don't need districting at all. The purpose of the 8 districting was to have the people from that district
9 represented by its own people.

10 MR. HARVEY: Suppose the people don't care?

11 SENATOR JAMES: It also makes the person more
12 available to those he represents.

13 MR. HARVEY: Well, if the people elected him,
14 this would follow the argument on the other side.

15 DELEGATE MANDEL: You can say that for any 16 office we are elected to. If the people don't care, we 17 can elect a Governor who resides in Alabama.

18 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: I think we have seen
19 bad trend in national elections, where men who have 20 national prominence and can, with continuous resident 21 setups, run from one state to another. A resident of
