

1 think that gives our two visitors some idea or feeling 2 of what our consideration has been up to this point and 3 where we stand, and I might further state that what we've 4 got to do as of this meeting today, we've got to agree
5 that the policy questions to be submitted to the full 6 Commission are adequately stated in the list, some nine
7 in number, with some subdivisions which have been pre-
8 viously circulated to each of the members; and I believe,
9 Dr. Burdett, you were able, or were you able to give a 10 copy of that suggested list to --

11 DR. BURDETT: Yes, they have them.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Because our time is running
13 somewhat short, and I want to take full advantage of any 14 thoughts that our visitors may have. I am going to 15 approach the question broadly rather than in detail and 16 I am going to ask Mr. Ratchford this question.

17 As you were given this list of policy questions
18 and as you reviewed it, what particular items struck a 19 responsive chord in your mind and what comments by way of 20 that particular item would you like to make at this time?
21 I have given you a broad one, and I will give you five
