

1 THE CHAIRMAN: How about persons holding
2 military office? That's in that same question.

3 DELEGATE MANDEL: I've never understood the
4 reason for that.

5 MR. ENEY: It's goes back to historical
6 reasons, the fear of the military, civilian control of 7 the military.

8 SENATOR JAMES: I know reserve officers can
9 serve.

10 DELEGATE KIRCHER: Some of our reserve offi-
11 cers and also National Guard people.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: The interpretation is that they
13 are not fully active officers.

14 SENATOR JAMES: I think that could be quali-
15 fied some.

16 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: Historically speaking,
17 I think keeping the military out of the legislature is 18 very well founded, if you go back to Napoleon's time and

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Perhaps the word active should
20 be put in there, so no one has any guilt feelings about
21 being in the reserves.
