

1 provision.

2 DELEGATE MANDEL: I think if there is any
3 constitutional way to do it, if you can use registered
4 voters as a basis, I think you would solve your problem
5 without any trouble.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: The courts in Baltimore ruled
7 against that.

8 DELEGATE MANDEL: The Supreme Court said it's
9 all right in Hawaii.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, but it isn't all right
11 under certain circumstances.

12 DELEGATE MANDEL: If it can be used, I think
13 this is the one way you can determine any day in the week
14 what your population basis is.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Incidentally, who would do the 16 reapportionment and redistricting? Would you have the 17 legislature do it?

18 SENATOR JAMES: What does Alaska do? Doesn't
19 the Governor do it, with an advisory condition?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: In some of the states. The 21 model says the Governor should do it with an advisory
