

1 Ken Barnes is taking that over. He's much more energetic
2 and forward looking, but that 4,000,000, which roughly
3 half of that is Federal funds, we do have jurisdiction over
4 State funds and jurisdiction over how much Federal funds
5 we should accept.

6 Now, you get to aid to education. These are 7 where the mandatory things come in, which are mostly as a
8 result of a formula under the law passed by the legislature.
9 The first one is classroom expenses, which is almost 10 $102,000,000 and that is under the formula set up from time 11 to time by the legislature for schoolteachers, books and 12 operating expenses and things of that nature. We do not 13 attempt to screen that, only from the standpoint of whether 14 we think their population estimates, which is an integral 15 part of this formula, the biggest part of it, whether we 16 agree they are good estimates or not.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: But, even if you thought they 18 weren't good estimates, you would be powerless to change
19 it.

20 MR. RENNIE: No. Under an opinion of the 21 Attorney General, we can do this. This is one of Paul
