

1 be at all surprised if that subcommittee wouldn't come
2 out with a recommendation on this.

3 At that meeting I pointed out that we would be 4 considering that today and they said they didn't think they 5 could be here, but they said maybe the budget should be 6 considered in the first fifty days or first forty-five 7 days and there must be action taken or the session extended 8 or something like that. Now, you talked about that in your 9 letter. They feel very strongly about it and there are 10 other members of the Commission getting this feeling from 11 them, and I would like your comment as to any in between 12 that you can think of or any solution to prevent what 13 happened to the Cooper-Hughes Bill this last time, whether 14 Cooper-Hughes be good or bad.

15 MR. RENNIE: The Mandel Bill is one qualification 16 of it and that bill was passed, it's law now, to let 17 supplemental appropriation bills pass one house and only 18 have to go through the other house. That will alleviate 19 the condition they are talking about a good bit.

20 MR. BOND: But you think that is bad, don't you?

21 MR. RENNIE: Well, I didn't particularly object
