

MR. RENNIE: That if it is possible to do anything about this, relative to the property taxes, I'd extend it to the sales tax, cut out some of the exemptions on the sales tax.

MRS. HOFFMAN: What you are saying is taxes should be uniform?

MR. RENNIE: Everybody comes up, every private personal interest wants to be exempted, and it is going through every session of the legislature, exemptions of sales tax. I say cut it off. If you're going to have a tax, have a tax.

MRS. HOFFMAN: Everybody who asks for an abatement and credit knows generally well it is going to be shown on the books and this business, it wouldn't cost too much --

MR. BOND: Doesn't this go for your abatement, rather than -- did I hear you say you would assess all property, including church property, in the State?

MRS. HOFFMAN: I don't know how you would distinguish --

THE CHAIRMAN: Put it all on the rolls?
