

1 not in the Constitution?

2 MR. LAUBER: That is right. In other words, When I
 3 I would put in the Constitution this provision, that it Mr. Reubin. I 4 must be spent either in accordance with the appropriation to be in there,
 5 or a provision in the Appropriation Act. Then when you although the law
 6 look at the Appropriation Act, you would have a complete its program then 7 catalog of all the money they are spending and the authori- says, no, you can 8 zation for it. This would keep it for your intention, on that, but it 9 but would not prevent it from being used for the purpose an thing else
 10 for which it was given. MR. I

11 I would not contemplate any difficulty politically It is an important 12 in putting in such a provision. getting used of it

13 DR. JENKINS: Another problem we face, particular- problem. I recall 14 ly in these days and we would be facing it increasingly, York, I was a 15 and I don't know the specific answer to it, with regard to budget for the 16 Federal funds, where in higher education, and this would of the health D
 17 be in other areas also, where presently the Budget Bureau administrators 18 makes a decision as to whether or not an institution should my recalled.
 19 carry on a particular program, and I recognize that where I recall 20 State funds are involved, this is necessary, and yet this should I, and 21 goes back to the problem, one problem of autonomy.
