

1 would literally have nothing to do. I mean, he could go
2 off and take a vacation after he has made the appointments
3 of many Boards and Commissions and many others that float
4 about and disappear into the woods; but it is the budget
5 responsibility that gives him this authority to devote time
6 and give him opportunity to function as an executive. So,
7 I urge you particularly to do what you apparently are doing,
8 namely to work in close concert with a Committee on executive 9 organization, because what they do is highly related to 10 the budget process and the provisions providing the budget
11 just have to fit into this mood of the executive structure.

12 I don't know what the intentions of the Commission
13 are. I know what mine would be, namely to have only one
14 elected executive official in the State and place all 15 authority and responsibility in that individual, namely 16 the Governor.

17 Now, we also have to think in terms of the 18 fundamental characteristics of the budgetary process. As 19 far as democratic control of modern government is con-
20 cerned --

21 MR. BOND: You mean only one elected official?
