

1 constitutional provision as the Federal provision. After 2 all, the President of the United States is responsible for 3 digging every shovel of earth and firing every bullet.
4 There just isn't any other authority. So, if you want to 5 do that, fine.

6 MR. BOND: Mr. Donaho, may I interrupt? You say,
7 if you see fit. Do you have any recommendations for us
8 as to what we should do?

9 MR. DONAHO: I recommend you stick with the 10 present provisions and not allow --

11 MR. BOND: Thank you.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: I'm not sure I follow that,
13 John. This morning there was a great deal of conversation
14 about the desirability of eliminating or the undesirability
15 of eliminating. I don't want to get Dr. Sensenbaugh
16 completely in orbit before he has a chance to be, but there 17 was a discussion about this business which keeps the 18 Governor, locks the Governor really to the school budget
19 handed him by the Board of Education.

20 MR. DONAHO: I am opposed to that provision.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Actually, don't you really --
