

1 see.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: And the legislature can put
3 anything in there they want and the Governor can line item
4 veto it.

5 MR. DONAHO: That's right, and then his line
6 item veto comes into play. Whereas, if you give him the 7 authority to increase, you have to give him the line item
8 veto to knock it out.

9 MR. BOND: The Governor and the legislature can 10 increase on the capital budget.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, they can put any project
12 in they want.

13 MR. DONAHO: The Sobeloff Commission, as you
14 recall, did not like the idea of supplementary, but the 15 idea of supplementals as they are known in this State,
16 that is at the last minute, when all politicking is done,
17 the Governor comes running down with an amendment to his 18 budget. He says, I just met with the Comptroller and the 19 rest of the idiotic members of the Board of Revenue 20 Estimates and we found $3,000,000 we didn't know we had 21 before and, here, you squeaky wheels, this is where I am
