

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Rennie said this morning
2 this is a very desirable thing. If it hadn't been for it,
3 you would have a soldier's bonus and a lot of other crack-
4 pot ideas.

5 MR. DONAHO: I remember specifically in the case
6 of several bonus bills that were up, this was used to kill 7 the bonus bills and that was especially important since that 8 fellow died who used to lose the bills after they passed 9 the legislature. He used to lose them after they left the 10 legislature.

11 MR. BOND: But you would not be opposed to saying
12 either the budget has to be passed on the sixtieth day of a 13 seventy-day session or else it becomes effective without 14 action?

15 THE CHAIRMAN: He favors that.

16 MR. DONAHO: Yes, I favor it. I don't say sixty.
17 You could have some other number. Bring them up to the --

18 MR. BOND: That might be a compromise. Thank 19 you.

20 MR. BROOKS: That's a good suggestion.

21 MR. DONAHO: I want to mention one other thing
