2 for the faculty people. So, the question is should you get
3 the faculty to pay half of it or none of it? I mean, the 4 University has money. It costs $150,000 to do it, something
5 like that, 125, and I think the decision will ultimately be 6 that the faculty will be assessed a certain part of it through
7 a user charge and the rest of it the University picks up
8 the tab for it, and this is a restricted fund which is 9 strictly the University's. The State hasn't a thing to do
10 with it.

11 MR. DONAHO: I'm not so sure about that 12 because you are not going to tell me that the University of 13 Maryland is not a State agency.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: No, I'm not telling you that.

15 MR. DONAHO: You are not going to tell me that
16 the Board of Trustees are not representatives of the State
17 of Maryland.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: I'm not telling you that. I
19 meant, that Jim Rennie's office has nothing to do with it.

20 MR. DONAHO: There is no public policy involved?

21 THE CHAIRMAN: What is that?
