

1 it with them. Fortunately, they do not fight us.

2 MR. SACHS: An issue has never been made of it?

3 MR. PERKINS: Well --

4 MR. HOFF: Mr. Rennie has said they have always
5 been cooperative.

6 MR. PERKINS: That's right, they have been with 7 us.

8 DR. SENSENBAUGH: Once the Board acts on them,
9 it is the Governor's and the Budget Bureau's responsibility
10 from there. We don't take them back after they are revised
11 for approval.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: I know you don't, but my point
13 is after the Budget Bureau has changed the formula, the 14 inputs in the formula after the State Board has acted on 15 the budget --

16 MR. PERKINS: Right.

17 MR. SACHS: And reduced it.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: And reduced it, but you have 19 never gotten on your high horse and said, this you cannot 20 do?

21 DR. SENSENBAUGH: We have always resolved the
