

1 back and further consider it and then came up with the
2 consideration of having the referendum consistent with
3 the provision of Article 13 as presently contained in the 4 constitution.

5 MR. MELVIN: It would still have to be initiated
6 by the Legislature.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: It would have to be initiated
8 by the Legislature, but as Mr. Miles pointed out, it would 9 have to go to the units affected for referendum.

10 DR. LOEVY: As the present constitution reads,
11 it doesn't go to all units affected, just new units cre-
12 ated?

13 THE CHAIRMAN: That has been clarified. It
14 would only be the new units affected.

15 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Then the motion would have
16 to be changed.

17 MR. MILES: Would you accept amendment to your 18 motion to adopt the substance of the language of this
19 memorandum?

20 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Yes, sir.

21 MR. MILES: Dated May 27. I so move, Mr. Chairman.
