

1 I feel that we've got to more or less have a consideration
2 of the time of each individual.

3 So, Ridge, what I was going to say by way of 4 conclusion is that as a time schedule, the next meeting
5 of this Committee will be at 10 o'clock a.m. on February
6 21, prior to the meeting of the full Commission at 1
7 o'clock on that date. Now, that means that we've got 8 approximately three weeks between now and then. I plan
9 to set up this kind of a schedule.

10 The minutes of this meeting will be distributed 11 on or before ten days from today. That means within those 12 minutes there will be an invitation for further comment,
13 revision and change, and that that be back in my hands
14 five days from that date. Then on the strength of those 15 results, we will be prepared at the meeting on the 21st 16 with a final draft of policy questions to be submitted to 17 the full Commission. I plan to send a copy of that final 18 draft and have it in the hands of John Brooks and Mr.
19 Eney seven days prior to the actual meeting. That means, 20 actually, we will have to do it overnight because, on the 21 basis of ten days to get the minutes, five days for
