

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the purpose of preserving order, enforcing the rules and regulations of said corporation not inconsistent with the laws of this state, and the protection of property, the several justices of the peace in Harford county be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, upon the request of the president of the board of directors of said association, to summon and detail, in the name of the State of Maryland, such constabulary force as the president of said society may deem sufficient for the perfect preservation of peace and order, the protection of property, and the full enforcement of the rules and regulations aforesaid, during any fair or exhibition of said corporation, and upon and around the grounds belonging to or controlled by the same, which detailed force aforesaid shall have and exercise the same powers and authority as the several constables in this state now have as conservators of the peace.

Establish constabulary force.

Powers of constables.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who shall knowingly and wilfully violate any of the provisions of this act, or any of the by-laws, rules, regulations or other enactments of the said association not inconsistent with the laws of this state, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, each and every person so offending shall be fined by said justice of the peace a sum not less than one dollar nor more than five dollars for the first offence, and not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars for each and every offence committed thereafter; and upon the failure of any persons to pay the said fines, together with all the cost attending their arrest and conviction, the justice of the peace before whom the same be tried shall commit them to the county jail in said county until the said fine and costs are paid.

Penalty for violating provision

Commit until fine is paid.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all fines imposed and collected under and in accordance with this act shall be paid to the treasurer of the board of school commissioners of Harford county, for the use and benefit of the public schools in said county.

Fines—how disposed of.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all persons summoned and detailed in accordance with the first section of this act, shall be known, recognized and respected as "special constables," and shall have full power, authority and jurisdiction in the discharge of

How known and recognized