

Arrest disorderly persons.

their several duties within the fair grounds and other enclosures belonging to and controlled by the said corporation, and also within the distance of one-half mile beyond and surrounding said grounds and enclosures; and the said special constables shall arrest all disorderly persons within their said jurisdiction whom they shall find disturbing the peace, in any manner interrupting the conduct and progress of any fair or exhibition, or violating any of the provisions of this act or the by-laws, rules and regulations of the said association, and shall take the said violators before some justice of the peace of said county, to be tried and fined in accordance with the second section of this act; and the said special constables and justices of the peace shall receive, for issuing and serving all processes under this act, the same fees that the said justices of the peace, and the constables in this state, are now entitled to receive for like service.

Discharge and dismiss.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said president of the board of directors of the said association be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to discharge and dismiss, at any time, any one or more of the special constables aforesaid, on account of a refusal or failure for any cause to perform any duty imposed by or in accordance with this act; and any special constable so discharged or dismissed shall forfeit and lose a part or all of his per diem or wages due to him from the said association for any service as special constable aforesaid, at the discretion of the aforesaid board of directors.

Effective.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 20, 1884.