

Chapter 87.

AN ACT to refund to James Cheston, James Carey and Francis T. King, executors of Galloway Cheston, late of Baltimore county, deceased, a sum of money erroneously paid by them into the treasury.

WHEREAS James Cheston, James Carey and Francis T. King, executors of Galloway Cheston, late of Baltimore county, deceased, paid to the register of wills for said county the sum of sixty dollars, as the state tax on the sum of six hundred dollars of executors' commissions allowed them by the orphans' court of said county; and whereas, in the final settlement of said estate in the circuit court of Baltimore city, the said executors were obliged to return to said estate the entire amount of said commissions, including the said sum of sixty dollars paid by them as said state tax thereon; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the comptroller of the treasury be and he is hereby directed to issue his warrant on the treasurer of Maryland to pay to James Cheston, James Carey and Francis T. King, executors of Galloway Cheston, deceased, the sum of sixty dollars, paid by them as state tax on executors' commissions erroneously allowed them, and which were subsequently returned by them to the said estate.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 27, 1884.
