

Chapter 88.

AN ACT to repeal section one hundred and two of article twenty of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Talbot county," sub-title "Oxford," and section ninety-nine of said article as amended and re-enacted by chapter one hundred and seventy of acts of eighteen hundred and seventy-six, and to re-enact the same with amendments, and also to add additional sections thereto.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and two of article twenty of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Talbot county," sub-title "Oxford," and section ninety-nine of said article as amended and re-enacted by the act of eighteen hundred and seventy-six, chapter one hundred and seventy, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, and that additional sections be added to said article, as follows:

Additional section.

Vacancy—how filled.

SEC. 102. If any of the said commissioners, during the term for which he was elected, shall die, resign, remove from said county, or be otherwise disqualified, an election shall be held to fill the vacancy; or if from any cause the citizens of said town shall neglect or fail to hold an election for commissioners as required by this act, then the commissioners in office shall order an election within thirty days from such neglect or failure to hold, and shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of holding such election.

Elect three commissioners.

SEC. 99. All male inhabitants above the age of twenty-one years, who shall have had a bona-fide residence in said town for six months, and twelve months in the state next preceding the election, or who shall be the holders of real property within the limits of said town, and have resided six months in Talbot county, and twelve months in the state, shall, on the first Monday in June, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-four, at such time and place as shall be designated by the commissioners, elect three persons who are above the age of twenty-one years, and who have resided in said town at least twelve months next preceding the election of the commissioners of said town; the person so elected receiving the highest