SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the citizens of said town, having resided therein six months previous to any election, shall, on the first Monday in May next, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, and annually thereafter, on the same day of the week, elect five commissioners of Poolesville, to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The commissioners must be substantial citizens, resident in said corporate limits, and must have resided therein for at least six months next preceding their election; must be owners of real estate within said corporate limits, and must continue to reside within said corporate limits during their term of office. They shall receive no pay for their services, except the president, who shall receive the fees hereinafter allowed.

Elect commissioners.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the five commissioners elected shall choose one of their number president; and all vacancies in the commissioners shall be filled by an election, held after ten days' notice given by the remaining commissioners.

Choose president.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall meet in some convenient place in said town, on or before the first Monday in June next succeeding their appointment, and as often thereafter as may be necessary, to discharge the duties of their office.

Time of meeting.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint three judges of election, who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the state, except that the polls shall be opened at two o'clock p. m., and closed at seven o'clock p. m.; and the judges and clerk shall make their returns to the commissioners, but shall receive no compensation for their services. The first election shall be held before B. T. Norris, Thomas Hoskinson and Richard Poole, who are hereby appointed judges for that purpose.

Appoint judges of elections.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall annually appoint a clerk, who shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons
