

jail of Frederick county for every such offence for not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

SEC. 10. Be it enacted, That if any one who has been adjudged guilty by a justice of the peace as aforesaid, of a violation of any of the provisions of this act, feels himself aggrieved by said judgment, he may appeal from said judgment, and have the same tried in the circuit court for Frederick county, as other appeals from magistrates' judgments are tried, and said court shall have power to impose the penalties provided in this act; but sentence shall not be stayed on said magistrate's judgments unless a bond in the penalty of fifty dollars to prosecute said appeal, with good security, is given by the party so convicted.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.

Chapter 210.

AN ACT to repeal section three of article twenty-one of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Commissioners to take Acknowledgments," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section three of article twenty-one of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Commissioners to take Acknowledgments," be and the same hereby is repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Repealed and re-enacted with amendments.

SEC. 3. Every commissioner so appointed shall take and subscribe an oath before a justice of the peace or notary public in the city or county in which he shall reside, well and faithfully to execute and perform all the duties of such commissioners under and by virtue of the laws of this state, and shall also procure an official seal, a distinct impression of which, taken upon wax or some other substance capable of receiving and retaining a clear impression, together with his Oath required.