

upon other railroads whose charters do not exempt the same from taxation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in the exercise by said company of the powers of condemnation of property in the counties for said lateral railroads, and for said Philadelphia Branch Railroad, the circuit courts shall have the same powers in relation to any inquisition made and returned by the jury of inquest of damages, summoned in the manner provided by the act to which this is a supplement, and the amendments and supplements thereto, which by said acts are conferred upon the county courts; but in all proceedings for the condemnation of property for said lateral railroads and said Philadelphia Branch Railroad, made under the authority of this act, and the act to which this is a supplement, and the amendments and supplements thereto, the respective courts to which the inquisitions are returned shall have full power to confirm said inquisitions at any time after the return of the same to the respective clerks of said courts, if no sufficient cause to the contrary be shown; but thirty days after such return shall be allowed in which to file objections to the confirmation of said inquisitions.

Powers of circuit courts in inquisitions.

Power to confirm.

Time to file objections.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 28, 1884.