

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said mayor and common council shall have full power and authority, and are hereby required to levy all necessary taxes upon the property within the taxable limits of the said corporation, for the payment of the interest on the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, as well as for the payment of the said bonds at maturity, and shall create a sinking fund for that purpose, and levy the necessary taxes therefor, not exceeding the provisions of the charter of the said town; provided that the question of issuing the said bonds shall, at the first general election after the passage of this act, held in the said town of Union Bridge, be submitted to the qualified voters of the said town. If a majority of the votes cast at the said election favor the execution of this law, the mayor and common council may proceed to issue the said bonds; and if a majority of the votes cast are against the execution of this law, then it shall be null and void.

Levy all necessary taxes.

Submitted to voters.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 4, 1884.
