

true, to be administered by any one of the commissioners of charities and corrections.

SEC. 18. The overseer shall keep a list all poor, beggars, vagrants, vagabonds, and other offenders, who shall be committed to said almshouse, and regular accounts of all materials and other things that may come to his hands as overseer, and shall lay said lists and accounts before the commissioners of charities and corrections, or the majority of them when required.

Keep list of poor, &c.

SEC. 19. He shall compel all the inmates of said almshouse, if of sufficient ability, to work.

Inmates to work.

SEC. 20. Upon complaint made that any person from his disorderly conduct gives disturbance to a neighborhood, and is likely to become chargeable to the county, any justice of the peace of the county, if upon hearing the party he shall adjudge the complaint to be well founded, may commit such disorderly person to the almshouse for any time not exceeding three months, unless he shall find security, at the discretion of the justice, in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars for his good behavior for the space of six months.

Commit disorderly persons.

SEC. 21. The commissioners of charities and corrections of Frederick county shall have full power and authority to receive into the almshouse or Montevue hospital all such lunatics or insane persons or paupers as may be committed thereto by any of the courts of any state, and also all such lunatic or insane persons who may be placed in said hospital by their friends for safe-keeping or treatment, and shall be entitled to receive as compensation for the board, treatment and support of such person such compensation as may be reasonable and just, to be paid by the county commissioners of the counties from which such persons may be sent, when committed by the order of any court, and to be paid by the friends, relations, trustees or committees of such lunatic or insane persons, when such persons shall be placed in said hospital by such friends, relations, trustees or committees.

Authority to receive paupers &c.

Compensation

SEC. 22. Any one commissioner of charities and corrections may, in writing, direct the admission of any poor person into said almshouse.

Who may direct.

SEC. 23. Any justice of the peace for said county, and any person by him authorized, may apprehend or cause to be apprehended any rogues, vagrants, vagabonds, beggars and other idle and disorderly persons found loitering or residing in said county, who follow

Justice may commit.