

shall be entitled to receive the same; and in case of his failure to pay over said fines and forfeitures so collected within three months after the same shall become due, the bond of said state's attorney shall be liable to be put in suit by said school commissioners for same.

Fine for violation.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the sale of intoxicating liquors otherwise than as provided for in this act shall be a misdemeanor, and any person convicted thereof shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Who to be licensed.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That any person or persons of full age and of good moral character may be licensed to sell intoxicating liquors on complying with the same conditions as required from persons applying for a license to keep an inn or tavern as hereinbefore mentioned, except that the description of his or their place of business, and amount of stock, shall vary according to the nature thereof, both in his or their application and certificate of recommendations of freeholders; provided that in case of a license being granted it shall not authorize him to sell in a less quantity than one-half gallon, or permit the same to be drunk on his premises when bought.

Who to sell less than a pint.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That any person or persons of full age and of good moral character may be licensed to sell intoxicating liquors under what is known as the oyster or eating-house license, in quantities less than a pint, on complying with the same conditions as required from persons applying for a license to keep an inn or tavern as hereinbefore mentioned, except the description of his or their house of business and stock shall vary according to the nature thereof, both in his or their application and certificate of recommendation of freeholders.

How sold by manufacturer.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That no manufacturer of spirituous or fermented liquors for sale shall sell in less quantities than one pint, to be taken away at one and the same time. He shall not sell, give away or dispense any liquor to be drunk on his premises to any person or at any time when an innkeeper might not lawfully do the same. He shall not sell any liquor not manufactured by himself, nor mix, compound or distill the same with his own; and any manufacturer violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of one hundred Penalty for violation.