

three commissioners for Rockville, which day of election shall be on the first Monday in June next, and on the first Monday of June every two years thereafter; the said judges of election shall appoint one clerk, and the holding of such election shall be regulated and governed by the same laws as are now applicable to state elections, except that the hours of holding such election shall be from two o'clock p. m. to seven o'clock p. m.

Day of election.

SUB-SEC. 1. Be it enacted, That all elections shall be by ballot; and every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, who has been a resident within the corporate limits of the town of Rockville for twelve months next preceding the election, shall be entitled to vote at all elections for "commissioners for Rockville," which election shall be held on the first Monday in June next; and every two years thereafter, on the first Monday in the month of June, such voters shall elect three commissioners for Rockville, to serve for two years from the date of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified; the commissioners must be substantial citizens, residents in said corporate limits, and must have resided therein for at least two years next preceding their election, and continue to do so during their continuance in office; they shall receive no pay for their services, except the president, who shall receive the fees hereinafter allowed.

Who entitled to vote.

Elect commissioners.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.