

ters, directly or indirectly, at any place within the limits of said county; but if it shall be found, by the return of said judges of election and proclamation of said clerk, that a majority of all the votes cast, as prescribed in the preceding sections, in said county, has been cast for the sale of said spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, then the same shall be sold, as allowed, under the license laws of this state, subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned or prohibited, as now prohibited by law in said county.

When lawful.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, house, company, association or body corporate, shall sell, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters within the limits of said county, if a majority of all the votes cast shall have been against the sale of liquors or bitters after the fourth day of November, eighteen hundred and eighty-four, he, she, they or it shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay, on conviction, a fine of not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, or instead of such fine, imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That in addition to the respective amounts to be paid by any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association, for taking out license under article fifty-six of the Code of Public General Laws, and the supplementary acts thereto, relating to spirituous or fermented liquors by retailers and oyster or eating houses, or under any other section of said article, the said person or persons, house, corporation, company or association shall, if he, she, they or it intends to sell or barter spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, or all combined, in quantities more than a pint or less than a pint, or by the drink, that such applicant or applicants shall pay to the clerk of the circuit court for Prince George's county the sum of one hundred dollars for the use of the public roads of Prince George's county before any such license shall be granted; and if any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association shall open or keep any oyster house, cook-shop, victualing-house or lager beer saloon, or any other than an ordinary at or in which spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer may be sold or bartered in quantities less than a pint at any one time, or by the drink,

Who to pay to.