

Chapter 44.

AN ACT to repeal sub-section thirty-eight of chapter one hundred and eight of the acts of assembly passed at the session of eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, entitled "An act to add an additional section to the Code of Public Local Laws, to be entitled Garrett county," sub-title "Fish," and to re-enact said section with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sub-section thirty-eight of chapter one hundred and eight of the acts of General Assembly, passed at the session of eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, entitled "An act to add a new article to the code of Public Local Laws, to be entitled Garrett county," sub-title "Fish," be and is hereby repealed and re-enacted, to read as follows:

Repealed and re-enacted.

SEC. 38. No person shall take, catch or kill any brook or river trout, or have any such trout in his or her possession, except during the month of April, May, June and July, and no person shall at any time take, catch or kill any such brook or river trout on the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, and no person shall at any time take, catch or kill any such trout except by angling with hook and line; and no person shall at any time fish in any stream of said county with net, seine, swab, fish-pot or other trap or devise, except hook and line; and no person shall have in his possession in said county, within one mile of any stream inhabited by trout, any fish net, seine, swab fish pot or other trap or device for catching fish, except hook and line; provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to prevent fishing for minnows to be used for bait in streams where trout are not known to exist, with nets not exceeding three feet in length, without other attachments; and any and every person violating this section, or any provisions thereof, shall be fined for each offence a sum not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Not to catch or kill any brook or river trout.

How construed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this section shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 4, 1884.
