

Chapter 323.

AN ACT to repeal section two hundred of article one of the Code of Public Local Laws, entitled "Alleghany county," sub-title "Surveyor," and to re-enact said section with amendments.

Repealed and re-enacted.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section two hundred of article one of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Alleghany county," sub-title "Surveyor," as enacted by the act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter three hundred and three, be and is hereby repealed and re-enacted, to read as follows:

Surveyor entitled to charge.

200. The surveyor of Alleghany county shall be entitled to charge for his individual services, under warrant of survey or resurvey directed from the land office, under orders or warrants of resurvey directed from the courts of law, and under orders from courts of equity, a per diem of five dollars for each day he may be necessarily engaged in performing the duty the said orders or warrants enjoin on the said surveyor; and in case it shall be necessary for the said surveyor, in performing his duties in any of said cases, to survey under ground in coal, ore or other mines, he shall be entitled to charge a per diem of seven dollars for each day he may be so engaged surveying under ground; and where the same shall be required by the person for whom the service is rendered, the surveyor shall state his account of such services under oath; and the said surveyor may demand his per diem for his services at the end of each and every day of the rendering of such service, from the person for whom the same is rendered; and if such party or parties refuse to pay the same, may decline and refuse to render any further service in the matter until such demand is complied with.

State account.

Approved April 8, 1884.