

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found by the returns of said judges of election, and proclamation of said judges of the circuit court, that a majority of the votes in said fourth district of Talbot county has been cast against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, that then it shall not be lawful for any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in said district.

When not lawful.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall be guilty of a violation of this act in selling spirituous or fermented liquors he shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars, and be confined in the House of Correction for not less than three months nor more than six months, at the discretion of the court, for each and every offence.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately after it shall have been determined by a majority of the votes cast in said district whether or not spirituous or fermented liquors shall not be sold as before provided.

When effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.

Chapter 327.

AN ACT to add an additional section to article sixty-eight of the Code of Public General Laws, to follow section twenty-four, to be styled section twenty-four A, relating to issuing of warrants of the peace by justices of the peace.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following section be added to article sixty-eight of the Code of Public General Laws, to follow section twenty-four, to be styled section twenty-four A.

Section added.

SEC. 24 A. The costs attending the issue of warrants of the peace, and of the execution thereof and taking of recognizance thereunder, shall be charged to and collected from the person at whose instance such warrant is issued, and no justice of the peace or constable

Costs of peace warrants.