

Chapter 381.

AN ACT to repeal section two hundred and twenty-five of article ninety-three of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Testamentary law," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section two hundred and twenty-five of article ninety-three of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Testamentary law," be and the same hereby is repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows :

Repealed and re-enacted.

Duty of administrator.

Commissions applied.

SEC. 225. In like manner it shall be the duty of every administrator to give in a claim against himself, and on giving it in, or failure to give it in, there shall be the same proceedings in every respect as are before prescribed in regard to an executor; but nothing herein, or in the preceding section in reference to executors, shall be construed to make the bond of such executor or administrator liable for a claim so given in or established, if such executor or administrator shall have been insolvent or unable to pay his debts at the time of his qualification as such executor or administrator; provided, however, that all commissions allowed to such executor or administrator in the estate shall be applied towards the payment or satisfaction of the claim so given in or established before he be allowed to retain any portion of such commissions, and his bond shall be responsible for failure to make such application.

Approved April 8, 1884.
