

ration hereby created, or of the privileges hereby granted.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said board of governors, at the first meeting of said board, and annually thereafter, shall organize said board by the election of a president, who shall be chosen from among the members of said board elected by the said Maryland annual conference, and shall have power to adopt and enforce a constitution and such by-laws, rules and regulations not inconsistent with the constitution or laws of this state or of the United States, as may be deemed advisable for the government of the business and affairs of said corporation, and for the regulation of the action of said board, its officers and agents, in the discharge of its and their duties in fully executing and carrying into effect the objects, intents and purposes of this act.

How organized

Powers.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That said board of governors shall elect the president and faculty of said seminary.

Elect president,
&c.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the president of the said board of governors, with the other members of said board elected by the said Maryland annual conference, and the president of said seminary, ex-officer, shall constitute the local or executive board of said governors, and shall discharge all the duties of the entire board during the interim of its session.

Executive board.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That this act of incorporation and every part thereof shall be good and available in all things in the law, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and shall be construed, reputed and judged in all cases most favorably and for the best benefit of the said board of governors and their successors so as most effectually to answer the valuable end of this incorporation to the promotion of the ends and purposes of said corporation as herein provided.

Good in all law.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.