

fourth day of November, eighteen hundred and eighty-four, which election shall be held in accordance with the law governing general elections of this state, and that ballots for or against such sale shall have printed on them, or written on them, the words "For the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors," or "Against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors," and that the ballots so cast shall be carefully counted by the judges of said general election, and that said judges shall make a return of such vote to the judges of the circuit court for said county, and if it shall appear that the aforesaid Dublin district, number four, shall have cast a majority of votes against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, then the judges of the said circuit court shall make a proclamation of the result of such election.

Ballots—how prepared.

Make proclamation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found by said returns, of judges of election and proclamation of the judges of the said circuit court, that a majority of the votes in the hereinbefore designated district of said county has been cast against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, that then it shall not be lawful for any person or persons or body corporate to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in the said hereinbefore designated Dublin district number four of Somerset county, voting by a majority against the selling of the same.

Unlawful to sell

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons or body corporate shall be guilty of a violation of this act in selling spirituous or fermented liquors in the said election district in said county, where the majority has been cast against such sale, they shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in the sum of not more than three hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars for every such offense, in the discretion of the circuit court.

Penalty.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately after it shall have been determined by a majority of votes cast at the said election in Dublin district number four, Somerset county, whether or not spirituous or fermented liquors shall not be sold as hereinbefore provided for.

When effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.
