

two hundred and ninety-four, of the acts passed January session eighteen hundred and seventy, entitled "An act to add additional sections to the Code of Public Local Laws for Charles county, under the head of 'Roads,' and re-enact the same with amendments, and to add a sub-section thereto.

SECTION 93. The county commissioners of Charles county shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to provide for the repairs of all public roads and bridges of said county, and to that end shall levy upon the assessable property of the county, and pay the expenditures for such repairs and all incidental expenses arising therefrom; provided, such expenditure shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars for any one year; and they shall divide the county into road districts, and the roads into sections, and appoint supervisors over the same at a fixed annual compensation of three hundred dollars, who shall hold their places during the term of office of said commissioners, and until their successors are appointed; and it shall be the duty of said supervisors to keep in repair the roads and bridges of said county, under the direction and regulation of said commissioners; for any neglect of duty, they shall be subject to removal from office, and to deduction from their compensation by said commissioners, and for that or any other malfeasance in office, be also liable to indictment in the circuit court for said county.

Repair bridges and roads.

Duty of supervisor.

SUB-SECTION 1. That the wages allowed for the payment of laborers hired to work on said roads shall not be less than one dollar per day, and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to provide for the payment of said laborers in cash within one month after such work has been rendered.

Wages of road laborers.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect on and after the first day of March, eighteen hundred and eighty-five.

When effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.