

interest to be thereto attached, and the said coupons on said bonds shall, as they become payable, be receivable by the collectors of taxes for said county in payment of county taxes.

When payable. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said bonds shall be issued payable ten years from the date thereof, and be redeemable at any time after the expiration of one year from date, at the pleasure of said county commissioners.

How sold. SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That said county commissioners are hereby authorized and required to sell said bonds to the best advantage at public sale, at such time and upon such notice as they may deem expedient; provided, however, that they shall not sell any of the bonds authorized to be issued under this act for less than par or the face value thereof for cash in current money.

Money raised. SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the money raised by the issue and sale of said bonds under the provisions of this act, shall be exclusively appropriated and applied to the payment of the present outstanding bonded indebtedness of said county accruing under and by virtue of the act of assembly of eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter two hundred and ninety-four, entitled an act to add additional sections to the Code of Public Local Laws for Charles county, under the head of "Roads," bearing six per cent. interest per annum, now matured and payable by said county.

How used. SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the county commissioners shall, in each and every year, levy upon the assessable property in Charles county, such sum of money as may be necessary to pay the interest on the outstanding bonds by them issued in pursuance of this act, as the same shall fall due, and also such further and additional sum as may be required to gradually retire and redeem such bonds until they shall have been redeemed; and said taxes authorized by this act shall be collected as other taxes are collected in said county.

Levy every year
