

deem proper to require, or any other persons that he may see fit, and upon the failure of said officer or other person to appear or to produce the records demanded when thereinto duly summoned, it shall be the duty of the auditor to report such contumacy to the said judges, who will thereupon cause said delinquent to be attached by the sheriff of the county and brought before them, and unless good cause to the contrary be shown, shall punish him as in other cases of contempt of court by fine and imprisonment in the county jail until purged of contempt, and shall make such further provisions for expediting the duties of the auditor by securing to him the inspection of said records and due performance of said duties under this act, as the circumstances of the case may seem to require.

Attach delinquent.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and thence on, the auditor of said court appointed as aforesaid, shall annually receive the sum of fifty dollars for his services in the premises, and the compensation provided in this act for such official, and all expenses of summons, publication, &c, shall be annually levied and paid by the county commissioners of the county aforesaid; provided, that no auditor shall be entitled to or shall receive any compensation until he shall actually have made, published and reported his annual audit as aforesaid.

Compensation.

When paid.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said judges shall upon said auditor's report being made to them, proceed to examine and confirm or remand the same within two months after its being filed in their clerk's office and published as aforesaid; provided, that exceptions to the approval and confirmation of such report may be taken by any citizen of said county interested therein within said month, and the same shall be heard and determined as exceptions to any other auditor's report are now heard and determined by law; and, further provided, that when such report shall have finally been passed upon, either with or without exceptions being taken, the same shall be held as conclusive, and be pleadable in bar of any further or other action in the premises.

Confirm or reward.

Proviso.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately upon its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.