

place in each and every privy, water-closet or out-house a water-tight box for the reception of all urinary and faecal matters under a penalty of five dollars fine for refusing or neglecting to supply the same, and that such box shall be emptied by the occupant, and it shall be the duty of the party occupying said premises to clean the same whenever it may be full, or sooner, on notice of said sanitary officers as made and provided for in section second of the act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, with like penalties therein prescribed for failure or neglect.

Place box.

Penalty.

Duty.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the earth-pits now in use for privies or water-closets shall be filled up with dirt and that the said boxes shall rest on or over and above the earth surface; shall be easy of access; shall be in their construction, location and situation subject to the inspection of the sanitary officers, and if found by the said officers defective in construction, location or situation the necessary changes so ordered by the sanitary officers shall be made, and on the neglect or refusal of said property-owners to have placed such boxes, or to have them made and located, as in the judgment of the sanitary inspectors seems best, in either case a fine of five dollars shall be imposed as in manner prescribed in section two of act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two; provided, that this and the preceding sections (fourth and fifth) shall be intended to apply to earth privies and other defective water-closets, and shall not be construed so as to preclude any other kind of privy vaults built on correct sanitary principles.

Boxes - where and how placed

Penalty.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful to bury the contents of privies or other offal or deposit the same within half a mile of the limits of any town, or within reasonable distance from any dwelling-house outside of town limits, in the districts over which this act gives jurisdiction under a penalty of a fine of five dollars.

Unlawful.

Penalty.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sanitary officers, on the prepayment of a reasonable sum, not exceeding fifty cents per box, to direct the garbage force to remove contents of privies, such money to be applied by the county commissioners to the sanitary fund.

Remove contents.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the said sanitary officers shall have full power to examine into all alleys,

Full power.