

Chapter 514.

AN ACT to incorporate the town of Catonsville, in Baltimore county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the inhabitants of Catonsville, in Baltimore county, are a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Catonsville," and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal and have perpetual succession.

Body corporate

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the corporate and taxable limits of said town shall be defined as follows: Beginning on the northerly side of Edmondson avenue, at the point where it intersects the easterly side of Ingleside avenue, and running thence eastwardly along the north side of Edmondson avenue to the point where it intersects the easterly side of Nunnery lane; thence southwardly, along the easterly side of Nunnery lane to the Baltimore and Frederick turnpike; thence crossing said pike and continuing the line of the easterly side of Nunnery lane, in a southerly direction, until it intersects the south side of the roadbed of the Baltimore and Catonsville Short Line Railroad; thence westwardly, along the south side of said roadbed to the point where it intersects the west side of Bloomsberry lane; thence continuing the line of the south side of said railway westwardly until it intersects the westerly side of the Rolling road; thence along the westerly side of said Rolling road to the north side of the Baltimore and Frederick turnpike; thence by a straight line northwardly to a point where said line would intersect the north side of the proposed extension westwardly of Edmondson avenue; and thence eastwardly, along the north side of said proposed extension of Edmondson avenue to the place of beginning.

Corporate limits.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the registered voters of Catonsville who have resided within its corporate limits six months preceding the election, and the male citizens of the State of Maryland who own any interest in real estate in said town, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards shall, on the third Monday in June, in each and every year, elect five persons who are qualified voters of said town and resi-

Elect commissioners.