

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That upon the information of any citizen of Queen Anne's county that he knows or verily believes that any person or persons have violated any of the provisions of this act, before any justice of the peace of said county, said justice shall docket a case in the name of the State of Maryland against said person or persons so charged, and issue a warrant at once to some constable or the sheriff of said county for the arrest of said person or persons, to be brought before such justice for trial, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offense, one-half to go to the informer and one-half to the school fund of the county, and in default of payment such person or persons so convicted shall be sent to the county jail for not more than thirty days nor less than ten.

Docket case.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons convicted of offending against any of the provisions of this act shall feel himself aggrieved by such conviction, he or they may appeal from the judgment of the justice of the peace, within ten days, to the circuit court of the county.

Right of appeal

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if any resistance be made to the officer directed to execute this act by any person or persons offending against the same, the said officer shall summons the posse comitatus, and proceed therewith without delay to execute his duty under such warrant; the justice before whom such offender or offenders shall be taken shall have full power to issue summons for witnesses and compel their appearance, and examine them under oath

Summons posse comitatus.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Inconsistencies repealed.

Approved April 8, 1884.