Issue warrant.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That upon information, given under oath to any judge of the circuit court or justice of the peace, of any violation of any of the provisions of this act, he shall issue his warrant to the sheriff or any constable, requiring any of them to whom it may be directed to summon a posse comitatis, if necessary, and proceed forthwith to arrest the party or parties alleged to have been engaged in the violation of this act, and to seize and to take possession of any boat, canoe or vessel, together with all her tackle and apparel on board of the same, and deliver the same to the judge of the circuit court or a justice of the peace of this state, to be dealt with according to the provisions of this act, provided that any justice of the peace before whom any person is brought charged with a violation of this act, the punishment for which is imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall grant the parties charged a speedy hearing, and if, in his judgment, the facts appear to warrant a conviction, he shall hold the parties charged for their appearance before the grand jury of the county for which he is appointed at the succeeding jury term of the circuit court.

Proviso.

Hold parties.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who shall resist any officer authorized under this act to make arrest shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon indictment and conviction thereof in any court having jurisdiction shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than three years, in the discretion of the court; the parties tried and acquitted under this act shall have the cost of such trial paid by the comptroller of the state out of the funds created by this act.

Penalty for resisting.

Duty of sheriff.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriff, constable or officers of the state fishery force to arrest any person or persons, and to seize any canoe, boat or vessel found violating any of the provisions of this act, and bring the offender or offenders before a judge of the court having criminal jurisdiction, or a justice of the peace most convenient or accessible, to be dealt with as herein provided.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the judge or justice of the peace before whom any person or persons,
